

Linda Lavin

The New York Times has raved about Lavin's "musical smarts, sense of humor and upbeat philosophy of living in the moment." Her singing was praised by Jazz Times for its "sass and panache." According to Time Out New York, "Singer-actor extraordinaire Linda Lavin has few peers as a performer."

Love Notes the new show from Linda Lavin – the Tony Award and Golden Globe winning and Emmy Award nominated stage and screen legend – is an elegant and swinging mix of timeless standards, jazz classics and gems of the pop/rock era. With her Music Director, Grammy winner Billy Stritch at the piano or with a 5-piece band that includes jazz violinist Aaron Weinstein, bass, drums and guitar, the show highlights Lavin's burnished vocals, which bring out new and unexpected shades from classic standards by Cole Porter, Duke Ellington, Richard Rodgers, Vernon Duke, with surprises thrown in by seminal pop outfits Steely Dan and The Eagles.

Broadway, TV, and film star Linda Lavin has received numerous awards: a Tony, a Drama Desk, an Outer Critics, a Helen Hayes and in 2011 she was inducted into the Theater Hall of Fame. She is also 6-time Tony nominee. Linda is widely known for playing the title character in the TV sitcom Alice for 9 years, for which she is a two-time Golden Globe Award winner.
